tension Work Through Farm Agents

Washington, April 13. — Another annual supply bill, the agricultural appropriation, was passed by the senate late today, after it had been amended to restore the free seed item for another year. The bill provides approximately $37,250,000, or a million and a half more than was passed by the house. The item of $300,000 for the free distribution of seeds was included in the measure as it passed the house. It therefore will not be subject to discussion when the bill is taken up in the senate. The vote by which the appropriation was passed was 75 to 24, but on reconsideration was stored by a 31 to 30 vote. The free seed amendments were offered by individual senators, which served to increase the amount of money set aside for the department of agriculture. Among the principal changes made by the senate were: an increase of $500,000 to the million dollar appropriation for agricultural extension work through farm agents; $250,000 to the $500,000 for the purchase of additional forest land in the Appalachian district; $200,000 to the $200,000 fund for combating the barberry bush, the heat rust pest. An addition of $75,000 as made to the appropriation of $150,000 for fighting the white pine blister rust, and $20,000 was provided for the extension of the leased water service into Texas, which exists to use the service in connection with radio broadcasting, according to Senator Sheppard of the state, who might the increase.

Five hundred families are estimated to have been made homeless and the damage will run nearly to a million dollars. The blaze originated in the Tunnish mill on the southern branch of the Elizabeth river and three tankers in the river were burned, catching on sparks. The fire quickly spread to the north, the sparks being carried 100 yards or more. Most of the houses in the path were of wooden construction. At one time there were nine different fires in progress. Although the fire departments, both local and from the cities and towns in the vicinity of Berkley, were called into service, they were helpless against the spreading flames which soon reached Liberty street, one of the oldest business streets in the town. A block there was completely wiped out. A Baptist church was also destroyed.

COMPENSATION LAW ENTIRELY REVISED

Administration of State Insurance
Fund Altered in Knight Bill,
Signed by Governor

Albany, April 13. — The Knight bill, making numerous substantial changes in the workmen's compensation law, and revising it completely, was signed today by Governor Miller. Prominent in the new provisions is one governing the administration of the state insurance fund, which the Governor, in an explanatory memorandum, declared "should be in a position to write a much greater volume of compensation insurance than it does." "It is my hope," the Governor added, "that by its effective competition the state fund will become a great regulator of insurance rates in this field of compulsory insurance." The provision referred to creates an advisory committee of nine employers insured in the state fund who shall have a voice in the management of the fund. "Such a committee," the Governor declared, "should disarm suspicion that the state fund is managed for political control and not for the best interests of its policy-holders and, it is hoped, will bring about most cordial relations between the management and the employers insured in the fund." Another change proposed for the state fund is to permit officials to pay expenses directly from the premium income, as other insurance is paid, thus obviating appropriations from the state treasury.

TEXTILE STRIKERS FOR UNITED ACTION

Bind Themselves to Seek Overthrow of Present Rhode Island
Government at Next Election

Providence, R. I., April 13. — Approximately 2,000 textile strikers from the Blackstone valley appeared at the state house today to stage a demonstration for passage of a 48-hour working week bill in the senate. They were met by a force of capital guards and city police, however, and denied admission to the chamber. Under the leadership of Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, the strikers then marched over to the steps of the capitol, where an impromptu mass meeting was held. President McMahon and Organizer John M. Powers addressed the crowd, pleading for observance of law and order, and the overthrow of the present state government at the polls in November. At President McMahon's direction, the 2,000 men and women held up their right hands and repeated after their leader an oath binding themselves to united action in voting against senate and house leaders and efforts to overthrow the entire state government. At Mr. McMahon's behest the strikers then left the state house grounds and returned home.

GOVERNOR TO RULE IF MOTHER IN JAIL CAN KEEP HER BABY

Measure Awaiting Executive Attention Proposes Giving Child to Relatives to Care for Shortly After Birth

Albany, April 13. — Among 150 or more legislative measures to be disposed of by Governor Miller within the next 48 hours is a bill by Senator George E. Fearon of Syracuse, provisions of which will determine whether Gussie Humann will be permitted to keep her baby with her in Auburn prison or if it shall be taken from her at birth. Miss Humann faces a term of from seven years and six months to 15 years in Auburn as a result of the sentence imposed on her yesterday in New York by Supreme Court Justice Lewis. The sentence was punishment for conviction of a charge of perjury committed at the recent murder trial of her sweetheart, Joseph Libsack. Before arraignment for sentence, Miss Humann told Justice Lewis that Libsack was the father of her child. The Fearon measure proposes a change in the existing prison law, under provisions of which a baby born to a prison inmate would be taken from the mother a short time after birth to be cared for by relatives of the woman, or, if no relatives came forward, by the county superintendent of poor. The existing law permits the baby to stay with the mother for two years after birth and for two years more if there is a chance of the mother coming out of prison within the additional two years. It was announced tonight at the state prison department that State Superintendent of Prisons Charles F. Ruffin and other officials of the department believed the existing law should stand and that perhaps some question to that effect might be made to Governor Miller tomorrow. Senator Fearon introduced the measure as a result of the case of Pearl Odell, who became a mother while serving a state prison sentence for complicity with her husband in the Rochester murder. The husband paid the death penalty. Mrs. Odell and her baby are now in prison, together. During Christmas festivities at the prison last year, nearly every prisoner played Santa Claus to the Odell baby.

The airmen, who, starting from Lisbon, successfully jumped to the Canary Islands and then to the Cape Verde, and whose ultimate destination is Pernambuco, Brazil, had expected to start from St. Vincent, Cape Verde islands, at 1 o'clock this morning. ## ILLEGITIMATE SON AWARDED $55,000

Supreme Court Jury Gives Him
Share in Brewer's Estate; Sued for Only $25,000

Jersey City, April 13. — Damages of $55,000 were awarded today to Vincent Earl Lembeck, 27, of Easton, Pa., by a jury in the Hudson county supreme court, which found that he was the illegitimate grandson of the late Henry Lembeck, millionaire brewer, and entitled to a share in the estate. According to testimony at the trial, the plaintiff's mother, Mrs. Josephine de Carter Coughlin, was employed 30 years ago as a cook in a residence near the Lembeck mansion. "She became acquainted with the brewer's son, Victor, who is alleged to have entered into a common law marriage with her. Just before the child was born, Victor is alleged to have confessed that he already was married and to have pleaded with the woman not to 'wreck his life.' She went to Easton and raised her son unknown to friends of the Lembeck family until the suit was filed a few months ago. Testimony as to Victor's relationship with Mrs. Coughlin was furnished in a spectacular manner by his rightful widow, who declared that shortly before he died Victor confessed that he had an illegitimate son and gave her the latter's baby clothes embroidered with the boy's initials to keep. The widow produced these garments in court and the mother collapsed at the sight of them. Vincent only sued for $25,000, the jury returned a verdict for more than twice that amount, on the ground that Vincent had lived in obscurity all his life and had been deprived of rights which might have been his years ago for the asking. The suit was hotly contested by the heirs of the brewer.

"Most Un-American Bill Ever Framed," Is Senator Simmon's Characterization

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, April 13. — The Democratic attack on the administration tariff bill was opened today by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking member of the senate finance committee, who in a statement characterized it as "the most un-American bill ever framed." He predicted that its operation would "penalize our export business which would mean in the end, curtailment of production and increased unemployment on the farms, in the mines and in the factories." At the same time senators of the Republican agricultural bloc held the first of a series of meetings for the consideration of rates in the measure which were fixed by the finance committee majority at figures below those suggested by the bloc. Senator Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the bloc, said also that it was the purpose to take up American valuation at the meetings. "There is a strong sentiment in the senate for American valuation," he said. "I do not want to put all our members on record as favoring it, but many of them are strongly impressed with the principle." Pending a decision on the question by the bloc, Senator Gooding would not say whether a fight for American valuation would be made on the floor. At their session today the bloc members, after hearing spokesmen for the Southern Tariff association, decided to support the increased rates asked for by that association on peanuts, rice and copra. The association also urged "that the duties on sugar be advanced from two cents to two and one-half cents a pound on bulk duty and from 1.50 to two cents on Cuban sugar, but the bloc has yet to determine whether it will support these increases. Aims of Agricultural Bloc. Legislation providing long term credits for farmers, reduction of railroad rates, adequate tariff protection for agricultural products and development of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., projects and fertilizer producer, were announced to the senate today by Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, as among the objectives of the agricultural bloc. Other legislative aims of the bloc detailed by Senator Capper, who recently succeeded to the leadership of the organization, included measures to give the farmers representation on the federal reserve board, to restore state control over state railroad charges and to brand all fabrics and cloths with the amount of wool or cotton contained.

Y., has been called to hear the testimony of one witness for the plaintiff. The defense, it is said, will call no more witnesses. ## RAILROAD BRIDGE SAVED FROM JAM

Biggest Pile-Up of Lumber in History of Moose River Finally Broken by Jacks

Old Forge, April 13. — Possible destruction of the New York Central railroad bridge over the Moose river, near here, was averted today when lumberjacks succeeded in starting a jam of 15,000 cords of pulp wood which had piled up back of the abutments and threatened at any moment to carry away the under-pinnings of the structure. The woodmen worked all night to start the jam, which began yesterday when a sudden rise of the river started the pile-up of the big drive on its way to the pulp mills. Before the jam, who were on patrol in the vicinity of the bridge, in expectation of a possible jam, could prevent it, the floating logs piled up many feet in the air and backed up the river for a great distance. Additional lumberjacks were secured and, with the assistance of railroad men, worked throughout the night to start the jam. It proved a difficult task, however, and not until this morning was the enormous pile of logs against its way downstream. Veteran lumbermen declared it was the biggest jam they ever recalled on the Moose river.

DOMESTIC OILS ARE STRONGEST ISSUES

Trading Passes Million Mark But Fails to Reach Impressive Dimensions of Recent Days

New York, April 13.—Business on the stock exchange today passed the one million share line for the tenth consecutive full session, but failed by a liberal margin to reach the more impressive dimensions of recent days. Tomorrow's recess (Good Friday) prompted additional selling to insure profits. This tendency was most manifest in the more representative steels, equipments, motors and foreign oils, the latter giving evidence of renewed liquidation.

Domestic stocks, notably Standard Oil of New Jersey and California, were among the strongest issues, with Sinclair, Cordell, Pacific, Associated and Tidewater. Extreme advances in this division ranged from two to eight points.

Rails were favored to a greater degree than in any previous session of the week. Tobacco and food specialties, also textiles and leathers, notably Tobacco Products, Loom-Woolen, American Hides and Leather preferred, and the secondary automobile issues, particularly Pierce-Arrow common and preferred, made substantial contributions to the market's constructive side.

Influenced by the more moderate tone of the stock list, the bond market showed a slight slackening of the previous session's extraordinary activity and breadth but the trend in most divisions was toward higher levels.

Security bonds, hatted in their recent sensational rise, although most of the series closed at gains. Many domestic rails added a point to recent gains and others were better by substantial fractions.

GETTING RID OF A STUBBORN COUGH IS CHILD'S PLAY NOW

Make the Medicine Yourself at Home. It's Cheap—But You Can't Beat It.
If you want to take care of that bad, hacking cough and do it in a few hours, better get one ounce of Parmit (double strength) and mix a half part of honey. You can do this in two minutes by adding a little sugar and enough water to fill a half pint bottle.
You'll travel the world over before you get a medicine that will act so surely, quickly and safely on the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. It halts the inflammation, the tickling sensation stops with the spoonful, the heavy breathing goes and clean, unobstructed, free from irritation and mucus follows.
For catarrhal conditions such as mucous drainage, choked nostrils, and watery eyes, it won't disappoint—ask for Parmit (double strength). Speak plainly so that the druggist will know exactly what you want. Advt.

FUNERAL OF LIEUT. WHEAT

Suitable Impressive Service for Gallant World War Veteran Held Last Sunday.

Sidney Center, April 13.—The funeral of the late Lieut. Murray Crawford Wheat, one of the heroes of the world war was held last Sunday from the Baptist church and his body which was recently brought here from France, was laid to rest in Highland cemetery with military honors. The memorial address was given by Rev. Roswell P. Whitman of Masonville, and the services were in charge of the Unadilla Legion, the members of which attended in a body. The flag draped casket was borne by six of his comrades, Charles and Arthur Amner, Hugh Morse, Jesse Howes, Donald Crawford and George Darrin, and the wealth of beautiful flowers and the large number of friends in attendance witnessed the popularity of the dead hero.

Mr. Wheat was born in this village about 31 years ago, and spent his early life here. After graduating from High school he took the law course in the University of New York and later graduated from the Willamette university at Salem, Oregon, and at once began the practice of law at Astoria in that state. He gave promise of becoming a very brilliant and successful lawyer and at the time of his enlistment he was assistant prosecuting attorney.

When this country entered the World war, Murray was among the first to enlist and soon received his commission as First Lieutenant of the 348th Machine Gun Battalion, 91st Division. On July 4th, 1918, he sailed for France and in the battle of the Argonne, September 30, he was mortally wounded by a shell which shattered his right leg. He died of his wounds October 2, 1918.

Among the relatives from a distance who were here to attend the funeral were his widow, Mrs. Frances Wheat, of Seaside, Ore., his sister, Mrs. W. H. Hudson of Sheldon, Iowa; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheat, and his aunt, Miss Grace Wheat of Youngstown, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison and Mrs. Gertrude Booth of Brooklyn, besides a number from Binghamton, Norwich and other places.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The film company controlling the services of Fatty Arbuckle announces that it will soon send out a new plan of his to test public sentiment. Will it not equally be a test of public morals?

Governor Miller has vetoed the bill increasing the salaries of the mayor and certain other officials in New York city, on the ground that the measure was a plain violation of home rule. Twenty-five thousand might not be too much for a proper mayor of New York, but it is much to high for Hyland.

Slander comes cheap in Vienna at current exchange rates. One professor, reflecting as professors sometimes will upon another learned man, referred to his associate in the university as an ass. Threat action was brought, and after prolonged litigation the court allowed a verdict of 500 kronen to stand. At present rates of exchange, this would amount to about 8 cents American.

The Gillette Safety Razor company apparently did a good business in a year of depression. In 1921 it paid 12 per cent dividends and it has just declared an extra one or 2 1/2 per cent. The safety razor, indications are, cuts close to the skin of the public.

The cigarette output for February fell off 24 per cent from that of February of a year ago, and that of cigars 10%. As Lent this year began three weeks later than in 1921, no part of it being in March, the reduction in sales cannot be attributed to any Lenten abstinence from the weed. Several reasons have been suggested, such as less labor and less money, a falling of the public taste, and when reformers might call a strengthening of the public conscience. Any of these reasons can be picked out if one does not choose to take the statement of the manufacturers, that more people are smoking pipes and less cigars and cigarettes.

Liberty loan bonds, which a year ago were selling at practically the lowest figure since the date of issue, some of them being at one time in 1921, down to 81, have come to their own again. This week Wednesday no Liberty bond sold on the New York Stock exchange for less than 89 1/2, and four of the seven issues were at par or above, while by contrast not one of the foreign war issues were at par except those of Canada.

Character evidence relative to a general of the Russian army, adduced in court the other day, undertook to prove three things, or at least three things were asserted. That the charges were entirely false, that if true they were not as bad as alleged, and that in any event the general knew nothing about the cases mentioned. All three contentions certainly should provide a conclusive defense.

Speaking of tobacco, the smoker of the weed notes with interest and satisfaction that the long-filler cigar of comfortable proportions is back again for five cents; also that there are a few ten-cent straight and indications of more. There is now lacking only the old three-for-a-quarter, or the cheaper six for the same sum, and pre-war conditions will in this line have been re-established.

GARDEN & HEN COOPERATION

But Must be Kept Apart While Crops Are Growing—Poultry Manure Used With Lime and Other Fertilizers.

Ithaca, April 13.—Although hens are not usually associated too closely with gardens in the minds of those who have had experience, gardeners at the state agricultural college here say that the combination is excellent if there is a fence hen high and chicken tight around either the flock or the crops.

This combination, they say, is a good illustration of the age-old partnership between livestock and plants, in which each contributes to the support of the other. The crop refutes and weeds from the garden make fine green food for the hens, and their contribution of manure is a valuable one to the garden.

Poultry manure is a rich nitrogenous fertilizer which may be applied at the rate of one pound to every ten square feet of garden area, supplemented by a separate application of one pound of acid phosphate and if possible one pound of wood ashes to every sixty square feet.

Need Lime Too.

Many garden soils need lime in addition to this treatment, and here the old adage, "To determine sour or sweet in garden soil, plant a beet" is cited. If beets grow vigorously and are tender and well flavored the soil is probably not greatly in need of lime.

There are more exact chemical tests for lime, but since it is cheap and beneficial to practically all vegetables, it is well to assume the need and apply it without testing, say the gardeners. One pound to 30 square feet is an average application. A very sandy soil should have less and a clayey soil more, especially if it has a dark color, which is an indication of the probable presence of a considerable amount of humus. Lime is best applied after plowing. Harrowing and working the soil in planting will mix it sufficiently with the soil.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Industrial Disarmament.

What has society to say to workers who resort to the strike in an attempt to disorganize industry, inflict suffering upon society, and loss upon millions in a widening circle, in an effort to prove the soundness and the fairness of a contention in economics? And what has society to say to employers who, for their own selfish purposes, sometimes foment strikes and who often prefer a contest of strength and endurance with their employees rather than submit the merits of the controversy to arbitration? For there is nothing to choose between the worker who resorts to economic force and the employer who invokes the same archaic weapon of destruction. Having taken, as a Nation, an unprecedented step toward the adoption of reason in place of violence in the relations between peoples, is it not time for the American people to effect a similar readjustment in the machinery and the workings of their industrial life? Is it not time—and high time—for industrial disarmament? [Christian Science Monitor.]

A Black Crow in the Building.

A great sensation has shaken the French war office during the past year. Pens, pencils, blotting pads, small articles of every sort have disappeared every day, and the most astute Dupin in the Quai des Orfèvres could make of it but nothing. Within a day or two, however, a stealthy waterer beheld a black crow wheel in from the outer air and nip a wrist watch; a closed window imprisoned the thief. In the top of a tree overhanging the building they found more than 300 pencils and other "small portable."—[New York Sun.]

Champions of the Pleiosaurus.

Unless the expedition which has started out from Buenos Aires to hunt the pleiosaurus took its cameras along, its labors may be fruitless. The governor of Patagonia has forbidden the capture of the beast at the request of the Argentine S. P. C. A.—[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

Displacing Coal.

A dispatch from Washington states that members of the cabinet are much interested in the various projects for utilizing the water-power energy of the principal rivers in the industrial east as a substitute for coal, counting on a saving of about 50,000,000 tons of coal a year.—[Wilkes-Barre Record.]

Talking with the Dead.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's visit will awaken an unusual interest because of its unusual object. If the distinguished author came to lecture on literature he would be assured of a warm welcome. Coming as he does to preach spiritualism and to prove both the existence of life after death and the possibility of communicating with the spirit world, his mission transcends that of most lecturers from abroad.—[New York World.]

The Jury System.

Thus far, by conscientiously sitting upon juries, woman has succeeded in convincing her most persistent critic, man, that she possesses more political emancipation than practical wisdom. But man himself, as a sifter on juries, has achieved nothing much to brag about.—[Chicago News.]

Statesman's Pose.

Statues of statesmen with three fingers of the right hand thrust into the front of the vest are old-fashioned; no modern statesman would think of posing without his golf sticks.—[Columbia Record.]

The Point of View.

One of the most curious things about American politics is that without a single historical exception a partisan is invariably a member of the other party.—[Washington Post.]

Confidential Communications.

We have no objection to following in the footsteps of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and talking with our departed ancestors, but we must insist, until we know more about them, that these conversations be held in the strictest privacy.

Wolchick Larceny Case Dismissed.

Dominick Wolchick, arrested on March 6 for petit larceny, it being claimed that wood bits found in his home at 21 West Broadway were D. If property was released from custody when his case was tried in city court Wednesday morning. The motion that the case be dismissed was made by Wolchick's attorney, Orange L. VanHorne of Cooperstown, on the ground that as the alleged crime was committed more than two years ago it was outlawed through the statute of limitations. The motion was concurred in by Police Attorney Donald Grant and Judge Huntington dismissed the case. The bits were found during the course of a liquor raid which resulted in Wolchick's being held for the grand jury on the charge of illegal sale and possession of liquor.

RECORD NUMBER AT HOME.

Over Three Hundred Take Agricultural Correspondence Courses From State College—Poultry Leads.

Ithaca, April 13.—March was the busiest month ever experienced among persons all over New York who are taking the agricultural correspondence courses from the state college here, according to figures given out today. The month closed with 303 persons taking the seven courses now being given, as compared with 97 in five courses a year ago. During the month 98 new students enrolled for the courses, which are free to any resident of the state who will provide himself with the required textbook and agree to study the work laid out for him by the college specialists.

The study course office at the college handled 408 reports of study and practical work which students had sent in to be looked over. These were graded by the college specialists and sent back with their suggestions at the rate of nearly 15 a day for every working day. For the same period last year, when five courses were given, 68 reports were received from students.

Poultry Course Leads.

Of the seven courses being given by the college, poultry has the largest number of students, 112. Farm management is being studied by 44, orchard fruits by 36, vegetable gardening by 29, milk production by 20, small fruits 14, and animal breeding 8.

Poultry students are scattered pretty well over the state, but the courses dealing with the other farm enterprises are, as might be expected, most popular in the counties where each particular enterprise is most widely practiced. County agents have information about the work and are the means of directing many persons to this assistance from the college.

Information recently compiled by the study course office indicates that more than 95 per cent of those who take these courses are putting what they learn to practical use, and that nearly 75 per cent are living on farms, either as owners, tenants, hired men, or owners' sons. They are located in every county of the state.

For sale or will exchange an up to date store and stock of goods for house and lot in Oneonta or small farm on state road, modern equipped. Must be sold soon. Big bargain to party interested. An exceptional opportunity. Blk 1014, Sidney, N. Y. Advt. 41.

LINCOLN MOTOR CARS

The Lincoln Car Has Arrived

We invite the public to see and inspect the 'finest motor car in the world.'

The Lincoln now for exhibit and demonstration at our place of business.

THE LINCOLN POLICY persists inflexibly to produce the finest motor car in the world.

By finest motor car in the world we mean, without reservation, the most attractive in appearance; the most comfortable and least fatiguing in which to travel; the most fascinating to drive; the most dependable; the most enduring; the most roadworthy; and by every standard the most desirable and most satisfying motor car of which it is possible to conceive. The effecting of that policy is made possible only because of abundant resources—in scientific equipment, in adept craftsmen; and in finances which are practically without limit.

LINCOLN POLICY is not subject to one iota of compromise. It is not subject to the influence of desire to meet a pre-determined selling price.

LINCOLN POLICY is not subject to any adverse influence, regardless of whatsoever effort or expenditure may be required to perpetuate the world-known Leland standards. Quality and character, as always, will persistently stand foremost.

These, scrupulously maintained, price then necessarily becomes incidental; and LINCOLN prices are merely what a car of LINCOLN quality and LINCOLN character, scientifically produced, must of necessity demand.

LOCAL MENTION.

—H. Howard Hulbert, manager of Rhodes' West End store, has purchased of Irving Wiltale of Worcester the house and lot at 16 West End avenue. Mr. Hulbert will move his family from Sidney. The deal was made through the agency of Coperley & Morgan.

—Brigadier L. M. Simonson, Staff Captain at Albany, will conduct special services at the Salvation hall, corner of Main and Grove streets, Saturday and Sunday at the usual hours. These men are in charge of the different branches of Salvation army activities in Eastern New York and are on a tour of inspection. Captain Simonson extends welcome to the public to attend these services.

—Water at the Main street bridge over the Susquehanna on Wednesday morning it was 12.1 feet and in the course of the day it dropped considerably. The low water mark last summer was 7.7 feet, and the highest figure ever attained on the record was 20 feet. The gradual disappearance of the snow from the hills indicates that there is little likelihood of extreme high water in Oneonta this year.

ELLIOTT PROPERTY SOLD

Frank C. Parish of Springfield, Mass., Formerly of This City, Purchases Valuable Realty on Dietz Street of Dr. J. P. Elliott—Price Between $10,000 and $15,000—Mr. Parish to Develop Property.

One of the most important real estate deals consummated in the city in some time has been completed by the purchase by Frank C. Parish of Springfield, Mass., of the land and buildings on Dietz street owned by Dr. J. P. Elliott. The deal involves the transfer of titles to the three story and basement apartment house at 28 Dietz street, the dwellings at 31 and 33 Dietz and the three story apartment house at 35 Dietz street, together with the 17-car garage and machine shop in the rear of the property, and a section of land extending up the hill and fronting on Lawn avenue. Possession will be taken in the fall. The consideration was between $10,000 and $15,000. Mr. Parish, who will become owner of this large parcel of land in the very heart of the city, is the representative of the Elmore Milling company at Springfield, Mass., and is a native of this city, where for several years he was engaged in truck gardening, his crops of lucerne strawberries having considerable local reputation. It is his intention to move back to Oneonta in the fall and to occupy the apartment in which Dr. and Mrs. Elliott now reside. He will make needed repairs to the buildings and will further develop the property, including the eventual erection of a large, modern apartment house in front of the two small dwellings and the building of a large garage adjoining the Hackett property on the upper side of his purchase. Other improvements to the property will be made.

Dr. and Mrs. Elliott will leave in the fall for California or a southern state where it is hoped that the doctor will be enabled to forestall the nervous breakdown with which he has been threatened for some time. Dr. Elliott states that there is a strong probability of their not returning to Oneonta as their home as it is their desire to return here to live if things are not to their liking in California or the south.

Dr. Elliott has been a practicing physician in the city longer than any other doctor with the exception of Dr. Ezra McDougal. For the past few years he has specialized in diseases of the eye, ear and throat. Dr. Elliott came to this city from Delhi 35 years ago and two years later built the apartment dwelling adjoining Huntington park, erecting at first but two stories but later adding a third story and raising the building so that the basement could be rented for stores. The dwelling on that location was moved back to its present location. Ten years later he bought the adjoining property, moved the house back on a line with the other dwelling, and built a three story apartment house on that site.

The deal was made without bickering. Dr. Elliott named his price and Mr. Parish, after a thorough investigation of the property, meeting it, thus forestalling several other parties who were angling for the valuable piece of property.

BLAZE ON GRAND STREET

Firemen Made Quick Work of a Bad Fire in the Apartments of E. J. Smallbone at 37 1/2 Grand Street, Shortly after Midnight This Morning.

The firemen were called to 37 1/2 Grand street about 12:15 o'clock this morning, where a blaze had been discovered in the apartments occupied by E. J. Smallbone, a member of the Oneonta theatre orchestra. The building on two beds standing in the same room was destroyed and the chemicals used by the firemen in extinguishing the blaze did some damage also to the woodwork and paper on the walls, but otherwise the loss is small.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Paul Gardner, residing in the apartment alongside, whom the smoke awakened. She aroused Mr. Gardner and he in turn called the firemen, the smoke even then being too dense for him to enter the apartment. The firemen with the chemicals made quick work of the blaze on their arrival.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. Mrs. Smallbone is visiting in Saratoga Springs and Mr. Smallbone, it is understood has not been rooming there during her absence. No one was seen about the apartments during the day and Mr. Smallbone could not be found last night.

The building is owned by H. W. Hyland and it is probable that the loss on the building is covered by insurance.

PRINCIPLES OF CITY ZONING

Phases of Subject, with Arguments for Adoption and Ordinary Forms of Administration.

Zoning, which will come to public attention in Oneonta for the first time at the Public Forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in Municipal hall on Monday evening, at which Dr. P. Goodrich, consulting engineer of New York city will speak, is a rather involved subject and in order to clarify the minds of interested citizens as to the subjects Mr. Goodrich's talk will include, the following outline explanation of zoning has been prepared by Secretary Hicks of the Chamber of Commerce as a matter of information:

The Three Phases of Zoning Are:

1. Use restrictions. Generally divide three types of districts, viz: Residential, Commercial, and Industrial. In future building, business places and industries are excluded from residential districts, and industrial plants are excluded from commercial districts. Existing uses of the areas, the best use the areas offer, and consideration to probable future changes and growth.
2. Height restrictions. Restrictions are governed by street width, traffic congestion, light and ventilation. Example, four districts where height of building is restricted respectively to 2 1/2 stories, 3 stories, 4 stories, and 5 stories.
3. Area restrictions. Proportion of a lot a building may cover is restricted. Example, two residential districts; in one, house are limited to 65 per cent of lot area; in the other, to 40 per cent of lot area. In commercial districts, the proportion of lot area covered by buildings must be detached and house is limited to 40 per cent of lot on ground floor and 50 per cent on upper stories. Area restrictions thus regulate number of families per acre. In built up districts, present density is limited as unit for maximum number of families allowed per acre.

Other Important Facts Are:

Zoning is exercise of police power of the state. New York state cities are given authority to zone by laws of 1917, chapter 483. Entire city must be zoned at one time. Zoning of a section of a city is a discretionary authority to other sections and thus unconstitutional. School and transportation problems, location of parks and public buildings, size of sewers, water and gas mains, are all affected by zoning since it established the density and size of the population in the various districts and type of the district.

Arguments for Zoning.

1. Protection against depreciation of property values.
2. Protection against increase in fire hazard and a corresponding increase in insurance rates.
3. Reduction of accidents on streets in congested districts.
4. Greater cleanliness and better air.
5. Reduction of costs of pavement, in residential districts especially.
6. Improvement of housing conditions by encouraging improvements for permanency, with insured stability of property values.
7. Promotion of business and industrial development.
8. Protection to health and comfort of residential districts.

Zoning Ordinances Generally Are Administered by a Commission.

1. To rectify on appeal, mistakes of city officials in passing on applications for permits.
2. To decide border lines of districts and exceptional cases.
3. To vary the literal requirement of the law where unnecessary hardship is caused, without conflicting with the intent of the law.

Finance.

So much needed constructive work has for obvious reasons been delayed for the past few years that we have a gigantic task to catch up with the work, and if not extremely cautious, we may find our city hampered by a reputation of being tax ridden. "Pay-as-you-go" plan is desirable to the greatest feasible degree. Bonding for some needful projects cannot be wisely avoided, and yet the following comparisons may be instructive.

Oneonta city has paid in the last five years, thirty-three thousand two hundred seventy-seven dollars and fifty cents ($33,277.50) interest upon bonds alone, exclusive of the school bonds. This is equal to the city's share of the cost of paving Fair, Church and Center streets, or putting sidewalks on every street in the city which is without them. The city positively would now enjoy a greater degree of comfort if this sum could, in the five years, have been spent for paving of sidewalks or parks instead of for interest on bonds. In the same degree, we can employ such funds as we can save from bonding in the future, for improvements built each year as we can supply the funds by a direct tax.

The increased demand for funds

THEO KARLE

Appears at High School Wednesday Evening, April 19.

In presenting the final number in this season's course as conducted by the Normal and Public Schools, the local committee desires to call attention to the reputation and ability of Theo Karle, the distinguished tenor singer, who is scheduled to appear at the high school next Wednesday evening. Karle is recognized as one of the leading concert artists before the public. He has appeared with the Philadelphia Orchestra at Worcester, Mass.; the New York Philharmonic at Carnegie hall; the New York Symphony at Carnegie hall; the Cincinnati Symphony at Cincinnati; the Chicago Symphony at Chicago; the Kansas City Symphony at Kansas City; the Seattle Symphony at Seattle; and the Portland Symphony Orchestra at Portland. The criticism of the New York, San Francisco and Chicago dailies are extremely laudatory. Devies of the Chicago "American" declares him to be the greatest American tenor of today.

Under any other auspices, the tickets of admission could scarcely be secured for less than $1.50.

There will be no sale of tickets on Tuesday, but on that day patrons of the season's course may apply at the store of Ralph Murdoch after eight a. m. and secure special reservations for this unique number without additional charge. Patrons are reminded that the committee can not be held responsible for seats unless these reservations are made. Beginning Wednesday morning, single admissions will be seventy-five cents to the general public. Adv. 1-m.

PROGRESS ON MAXIE THEATRE

Excavating in Front Completed and Shovel Moved Out of Hole—Forms for Foundation Being Constructed.

The work of excavating for the Maxie theatre at the corner of Main street and Ford avenue has ceased temporarily and yesterday the big Maxie shovel was removed under its own power out of the deep hole it had dug, the process being watched with considerable interest by the curious, who had been speculating for days as to how the shovel could be gotten out of a hole nearly as deep as the shovel was high. The method of procedure was simple. A sloping roadway was constructed at one end of the excavation and heavy rollers laid on its surface. The shovel was then backed up the incline, all the power being then of the forward wheels. The dipper was used as a pusher.

Work was immediately started constructing forms for the concrete foundation. This work will be pushed rapidly to completion. As soon as the debris from the Wilbur house has been removed the work of the excavating will be done. Two feet of soil will be removed back a distance of thirty feet, from which point the depth of the cut will be gradually increased to eight feet at the rear of the lot.

The excavation in front is fifteen feet deep and will provide a basement under the stores and room for the heating plant. The two foot cut will be under the foyer and the sloping excavation at the rear under the theatre proper.

Good Friday in the Churches.

At St. Mary's Roman Catholic church there will be a mass the presanctified at 7:30 Friday morning; also on Friday morning there will be the Veneration of the Crucifix, and in the evening, at 7:30, Father Henry will deliver a sermon on the Passion and Death of Christ, with the stations of the cross at the same service. At St. James' Episcopal church, morning prayer and altar service will be held at 10 o'clock. The three-hour service, the Service of the Passion, will begin promptly at 12 o'clock noon and will end at the hour of 2 p. m. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. John L. Short, master of Devaux school, Niagara Falls, and lately rector of St. Luke's church, Buffalo. The sermon will be "The Seven Years from the Crucifixion." It is requested that members of the congregation will come in and go out during the singing of the hymns at intervals of one half hour.

At the English Lutheran church of the Atonement there will be a special service, at 7:45 Friday evening, preparatory to Holy Communion on Easter Sunday. Members are urged to be present.

At the First Methodist church there will be Holy Communion at 7:30 Friday evening.

George S. Shide or any high class druggist will supply you with NORMA.

this year by nearly every Department positively could not be met in full, as our limit by direct tax at one per cent does not supply enough funds. It has been necessary to cut below the estimated needs of every department very considerably, except those which have a known expenditure. We are practically at our limit in the apportionment approved by the council, therefore each commission must study to keep within its budget, and if possible, return something to the general fund, as the natural trend of downward revision of prices proceeds.

The matter of financing the oiling of the street by the oiling tax on the owners of adjacent property seems an unsound principle. Paying for a portion of a permanent pavement is of lasting benefit to the property, but the temporary oiling treatment, while it has been satisfactory, is in many cases of no particular benefit to the property owner but rather to the large users of automobiles, and it would seem, should be paid for from the General Fund.

Board of Public Works.

Some prompt disposition is eminently necessary for the following problems:

First—Main street Paving repairs.
Second—Chestnut street Paving repairs.

Third—Wether Course Control.
Fourth—Bridge over Mill-race at Gas plant.

Fifth—Bridge over Gault avenue (materials already provided for.)

Sixth—Chestnut street pavement, from Pear street to City limits, (partially constructed.)

Seventh—Sidewalk Program.
Eighth—Street Oiling.

Main street paving is going to ruin, and must be made the subject of careful study, and some course of treatment be determined upon at the earliest possible time, so that a section in the business district may be treated as soon as the weather permits. This scheme should be followed up until the entire pavement in question is put in condition for years of service. If it is found advisable to take up the old bricks, it would seem that a storm sewer should be laid at the time, as this will be required when a sewerage disposal plant is built. The matter of removal of electric poles should be accomplished, and the space now taken up by them be used in widening Main street.

Parts of Chestnut street also need immediate treatment in order to save them.

The method of treating the dirt streets with heavy oil and crushed stone has proven very satisfactory. Orders should be placed early enough for materials to give prompt delivery this spring.

State legislative measures will be necessary to give us authority to handle Silver, Oneonta and other creek problems, and I urge you to take steps to bring this to the attention of our Legislature through the introduction of a proper bill at the next session, and that you request its early adoption.

The Mill race Bridge matter should be settled so that the work may go on at once. It might possibly be installed before spring. If suitable bond-statement could be decided upon. If this could be accomplished, the vast amount of spring clean-up debris might be hauled over it, thereby saving much to our citizens, and making the Park more easily accessible to the lovers of nature, and to the baseball enthusiasts.

Materials for the bridge over Gault avenue have been ordered, and a time for the construction must be found in our next season's program. Every provision should be made to push to completion the work upon the reconstruction now under way on Lower Chestnut street. No delay should be tolerated, either on the part of the Department or the Trolley company when spring opens up. The latter should be cautioned to make preparations to start early and keep pace with the progress made by the street department.

Our sidewalk program is very much behind. Some uncompleted sections should be pushed forward. A force of men should be put to work early in the spring, on the various pieces of work remaining on the program.

Other activities which this board should study with view to being ready when the funds are available are:

First—Church street pavement.
Second—Center street pavement.
Third—Fair street pavement.

Fourth—Acquiring land for sewerage disposal plant.

A study of the advisability of allowing the Trolley company to relinquish its service on the Normal line in favor of bus lines would be profitable.

The purchasing of land for the erection of sewage disposal plant, which we will no doubt be required to build soon, should be investigated. Delay in this matter may cost the city a very considerable sum, as land which is available may be developed and become much more expensive by the time it is necessary to use it.

Sewer plans should be studied, as some progress along this line possibly may help us delay final action in other matters.

The plan adopted by the State Highway Department of making minor repairs to streets by a patrol system seems desirable.

Five Protection.

The Department has a fine equipment, and is to be commended upon its efficiency.

The use of equipment by the employees of the Department for private errands should be discouraged. With the surrounding villages being equipped for self protection, it would seem unnecessary to make many trips out of the city with the apparatus, though cooperation is at times necessary and advisable.

Police Protection.

With the demand for men growing less active, a good list of Civil Service candidates should be possible. This department offers steady and honorable employment for good men, and good men should be available. The morale of the department has a direct influence upon a large class of people, many of whom are young and impressionable. The State Constabulary has earned the respect and admiration of the public. This position can and should be attained by our department. The crime wave only touched our city lightly, but credit for this is largely due to the alert activity of our department, the heads of which have made a close study of this difficult situation. No slackening of this alertness can be afforded. Some real work is now cut out for the department which will need sharp wits and experience to cope with it.

Increasing traffic brings need for more hours service at our Busy Corners. Reckless drivers should be made to defray the expense they cause the city. I urge all members of this very important board to work together, and to give the work the benefit of their combined deliberations.

A special woman officer has been rendering aid to the Department without compensation. This assistance seems necessary in connection with cases where women are involved, and in justice the city should pay some portion of her salary. With the increased funds appropriated to this department, it may be possible to employ an additional patrolman, the need of whom is recognized.

Department of Parks.

Much as has been done for us by gifts of Parks by public spirited citizens, we have been given added responsibilities, and a larger sum for maintenance is needed, and has been appropriated for this work. The influence of our out-of-door life can make better men and women of us, and of those who are soon to fill our places in this government. With additional funds as small as they are, the donors of our parks may see that we are progressing with our heritage.

Department of Health.

Our naturally fine and healthful surroundings have been carefully guarded, and we may be proud of our freedom from epidemics.

A survey of the milk supply should however, be periodically carried out. A set of rules promulgated by the Board of Health and offered to the Common Council for their consideration, governing the inspection by the Market Master of foodstuffs offered for sale, would seem to be a step in the right direction as safeguarding the public health.

Library Department.

Our Public Library is a source of pride to everyone, and a means to encourage its more general use is the only problem we need to worry about.

Educational Department.

Few cities have such good reason to point with pride to their schools. The need of buildings in the River street and Lower Main street district, and also the vicinity of Fox hospital seems to be our greatest need. More playground apparatus is very desirable.

Civil Service Department.

A carefully compiled list of positions under this head published periodically might bring to the attention of many good men or women the desirable city positions open to them.

Public Utilities.

Over the entire country an effort is being made to bring relief from the high rates for electricity, gas, telephone and transportation. Little change in rates can be hoped for from the trolley service, while the Normal line is burdening the system. There is a grave question of the safety of running a car in congested traffic, or elsewhere, with only one man in control. This method has been resorted to by the company in order to maintain adequate service without loss. If an accident, or sudden illness should incapacitate this one man, loss of life might easily result.

The telephone rates are now being investigated, and will be cared for, according to a report of the Public Service commission.

I urge the appointment of a committee by this Council to confer with the local lighting company, relative to a reduction in rates for gas and electricity, which, I have been given to understand, were raised mainly to care for the damage which came to the plant by floods, and have since been allowed to stand because of the general increase of expenses. The decline in price of coal, labor and various materials and supplies should afford some relief which might effect the rates charged.

Some gas main improvements should also be urged as the growth of the city has rendered the mains inadequate in certain localities.

House Committee.

The sanitary condition of the jail and of the detention room used for women is very important. Humanity demands clean and healthful conditions in these quarters.

There is no doubt that the maintenance of the Municipal hall costs more than the revenue derived from it, and a higher rate should be charged in order to replace broken furniture and to cover wear and tear.

For forty years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing only Marshroot for kidney, liver and bladder ailments, and how that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the money back if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffy eyes, clapping feet or moist palms, backache or headache, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away.

Kidney and bladder troubles vanish as if by magic under its beneficial influence. It builds up, and feeds inactive kidneys, stimulating them to normal activity. Tones up stricken, lax kidney tissues and by neutralizing the irritating acids in the urine ends all bladder weakness.

Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form at Dr. C. C. Carey's and all reliable pharmacists the country over. RADIO ENGINEER, CUTTING AND WASHINGTON RADIO CORP.

A SIMPLE PHONOGRAPH ATTACHMENT.

In receiving the radio concerts at home or in the club it is quite often desirable to have the music loud enough to be heard by a number of people without using ear pieces. If a phonograph is handy, nothing is simpler than to connect the radio receiver or amplifier cabinet with the tone arm of the phonograph. This can be done with a suitable attachment without in any way hurting the phonograph or disturbing the receiving set. As a matter of fact, the tone chamber of a good phonograph is quite favorable to the reproduction of the radio music, and many people prefer it to a metallic horn.

One of the simplest and least expensive attachments is cast in one piece of aluminum. Aluminum is a non-magnetic alloy and takes a very high polish. The first quality prevents any disturbance in the electrical action, and the latter is of value, as far as appearance is concerned.

One phone of any standard make of telephone head set may be rested, face downward, upon a rubber ring set in the cup shaped phone holder in such a manner that the hole in the receiver cap is directly over the hole in the cup. To connect the attachment it is only necessary to remove the speaker box from the tone arm and replace it with the attachment. The leg of the attachment is then allowed to rest upon the turntable of the phonograph. A piece of felt is fastened to the under side of the leg. The proper height essential to the production of full sound volume is thereby secured with ease. The sound passes from the telephone receiver to the tone arm of the phonograph, without being in any way distorted, and a "loud speaker" is thereby secured at a surprisingly low expense.

MONSTER OF AGES PAST
SEEN ALIVE IN PATAGONIA

Amphibian of the Mesozoic Order Reported From Territory of Chubut, Near Andes.

Tell that a plesiosaurian monster, an amphibian of the mesozoic order generally believed to exist only in fossil form, is still alive in Patagonia was expressed by Prof. Clement Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires Zoological garden. He announced he had received credible reports that such a monster was seen in a lake in the territory of Chubut, near the Andes mountains.

Prof. Onelli made public a letter from an English friend of his named Sheffield, saying that while hunting in the Andes, he discovered a trail of flattened out vegetation near a lake, indicating the track of an animal of enormous weight. Later, says the letter, Mr. Sheffield saw in the middle of the lake an animal, with a colossal neck like that of a swan, whose movements in the water indicated that the body was shaped like a crocodile. He said harpoons would be necessary to capture the monster.

Prof. Onelli said this evidence confirmed two previous reports that such animal had been seen alive during the last year in the same region, where various scientific expeditions have made rich finds of animals of geological ages.

He said an expedition from Argentina or some other country ought to be sent to capture the animal.

First "Weather Man."

An Englishman, Francis Galton, was the first real weather man. Galton was a cousin of Charles Darwin. He was born in England in 1824. Whether he was really able to forecast rain and sunshine with more accuracy than his successors is an open question; but it is certain that he was the first to attempt the charting, on a large scale, of the progress of the elements of weather. The methods devised by him, in modified form, are used to this day.

City Practically Mining Camp.

The town of Butte, Montana, is a vast mining camp, combined with a modern city. The Butte district has produced more than a billion dollars' worth of metals, copper heading the list. This is the most productive metal-bearing area of its size in the world.

Easy Either Way.

"It is the easiest thing in the world for a man to play sensible," says a magazine writer. The easiest thing in the world is for a man to play the perfect fool. Anybody who's had experience knows that.—Houston Post.

Still an Open Question.

"Doesn't your mother object to your staying out until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning?" the young lady was asked. "I don't know," the young lady replied. "She might if she knew about it, but I always beat mother in."

Judge Will Fine All
"Honking" Sweethearts

Magistrate Cobb, of traffic court, New York City, has declared war on all motorists who give the automobile horn a come-hither honk to summon a friend or sweetheart for a spin, in preference to getting out and buzzing the door bell. In fining one driver $5 for such offense, the magistrate asserted he will ask for a special squad to bring all honkers, who keep other people awake, into court for their just deserts.

FINDS BROTHER AND SISTERS

Kidnaped in Her Infancy Woman Is Reunited to Family After Twenty Years.

Wilmington, Del.—Kidnaped in this city when she was barely four years old and taken to Washington, Pa., where she was adopted by the family of an undertaker after having been deserted by her kidnapers, Mrs. Helen Smith was the other day reunited with her brother and sisters here after more than twenty years.

Mrs. Smith said her kidnapers went to California after leaving her in Washington, and although she was very young when spirited away from home she had a vague recollection of her brothers and sisters, and only a short time ago began an investigation of her lost relatives.

Through a letter to the police department she was informed her mother and father had died during her long absence, but her brothers and sisters were living here.

DO YOU COUGH?
ARE YOU WEAK?

When You Get Run Down, Have a
Cough, or After a Severe Cold—You Should Take this Advice.

Schenectady, N. Y.—"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very beneficial to me and gave me help when I was greatly in need of it, and I am glad to recommend it that others may receive help as I did. I caught a severe cold which affected my bronchial tubes and left me with a chronic cough. I became weak and all run down in health. I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised and decided to give it a trial. The results were very gratifying to me. It built me right up in health and strength and relieved me of all this condition."

—Mrs. J. H. Harrison, 110 Railroad St.
Just go to your neighborhood drug store, obtain the "Discovery" in tablets or liquid and see how quickly you will build up. You feel the tonic effect immediately. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg.

WHERE WINE COSTS NOTHING

Story of an Englishman, a Bottle and the Rate of Exchange.

The fluctuating rates of exchange in Europe bring about some humorous as well as remarkable transactions.

Recently an Englishman on his way from Germany to Switzerland purchased a bottle of wine for 500 crowns in the Austrian Tyrol. After drinking the wine he kept the bottle, and when he passed the Swiss frontier sold it for 50 centimes. A Swiss 50-centime piece is worth 700 Austrian crowns, so that the Englishman not only had his wine without cost but gained 200 crowns.

The lesson in skirt making is most timely at this season, and it is hoped that at the next meeting further progress may be made in the work.

SMITH MURDER CASE APPEAL

Arguments Probably Will Be Made Later Part of May, Attorney David P. Lee of the Defense Announces.

Norwich, April 13. — According to an announcement today by David P. Lee, attorney for the convict, arguments in the appeal of the Herbert W. Smith murder case will probably be made the latter part of May. Mr. Lee is busy preparing his brief. The chief points to be raised in the appeal before the high court include: (1) improper admission of evidence, (2) the question of position of gun as explained by doctors was not proper testimony, and (3) testimony of Chief Cronin of the Binghamton police department incompetent on the question of whether it would be impossible to catch the handcuffs on the trigger of the gun. Mr. Lee claims the conduct of the entire case was prejudicial to the accused, that the method and manner of drawing the jury was illegal and improper, and that there were many legal errors in connection with the court's charge to the jury. He expects to produce facts at the appeal hearing that will secure a third trial. Thirty bound copies of the official stenographer's minutes of the proceedings at the second trial have just been completed and delivered to the defendant's attorney. The record covers 1,228 printed pages, more than one-half of which, or 661 pages, are filled with the questions and answers in examining several hundred men to secure 12 jurors to hear the case. Only 229 pages are devoted to the testimony taken at the trial, the other pages being taken up with the attorney's addresses, the charge of the court to the jury, photographs of the Johnson state and post office at Nineveh Junction, and of the documentary evidence in the case. A similar record of the first trial covered only 882 pages. Smith, who was twice convicted of the murder of Lewis J. Johnson, son of the Nineveh Junction postmaster, is now in Sing Sing prison, but the appeal acts as stay of sentence.

Senator Calder to Speak.
United States Senator William M. Calder of New York will be the chief speaker at the annual banquet of the Norwich Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, April 25.

Yiswick Case Still Undecided.
Whether John Yiswick, arrested here Wednesday morning on a technical charge of vagrancy, is the man who hit an Erie detective over the head with a section of iron pipe when the officer attempted to arrest him for illegal train riding, was not decided yesterday but the case moved rapidly toward a solution. Captain Rowe of the Erie police at Scranton came to the city yesterday afternoon and returned to Scranton last evening with Yiswick, who had waived extradition and who was perfectly willing to go back to try to clear himself of the charge. He swears that he is innocent and that his statement that he had hit a detective was a bluff. The officer who was assaulted is in a Scranton hospital.

Embroidery Club Meets.
The W. B. A. O. T. M. met Thursday evening with Mrs. Hilborn, 27 Church street. The members had planned for a good time as well as for an evening devoted to embroidery. Nearly a score of ladies were present and the evening was rendered enjoyable with music and cards. Miss Irene Hayes, a piano solo and responded to the applause with an encore. At 7 o'clock a delicious dinner was served by the hostess. Everyone spent a most pleasant evening and Mrs. Hilborn was acclaimed a most gracious hostess.

Colliers Dam Raceway Repaired.
Work was finished yesterday on the temporary canal at Colliers dam, and yesterday afternoon the water was turned in and the Southern New York railway operated on water power for the first time since a large section of the raceway wall caved in. The walls of the canal were temporarily but substantially repaired, and it is hoped that it will not be necessary to turn the water off and commence work on the permanent repairs before a period of low water sets in.

Births.
Intelligence was received in Oneonta yesterday of the birth of an eight-pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Utter of this city, occurring at the home of the mother's parents in Jersey City, N. J., where she went a few weeks since. The father, as well as the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Utter of Eighth street, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

There will be a civil service examination at the post-office in Cobleskill on May 3 to fill the position of rural carrier at East Worcester.
There is trouble between the trustees and congregation of the First Reformed church of China, and the descendants of the late Thomas A. H. Crosswell relative to the disposition of the $6,200 awarded to the church society by the city of New York when the church was razed in connection with the construction of the Schoharie reservoir. It appears that the church deed had a provision stipulating that the property should revert to the original owner in case it was not used for church purposes. The society had built a large and expensive church, and now the Crosswell heirs claim the money awarded in condemnation, alleging that as it is not used for religious purposes the title has reverted. The church officers, however, allege that the stipulations of the deed to have been that they should have full and peaceable possession, and since the surrender of the property was not a voluntary act they should have all the money except the bare value of the land itself.

The Snell Florist Shop at Herkimer has sustained a loss during the past year estimated at around $1,000 through depredations of rats. The rodents have a distinct liking for carnations and they attack these plants just as the buds break open, gnawing into the pulpy center. Sweet peas are also sufferers, rats climbing several feet up trellises and poles to get the blossoms. Every known poison has been tried on the rats but they continue to thrive.

The Radio club of Roxbury held their first meeting Friday night at the Baptist church at which time the following officers were elected: Robert B. The Sunday Community Athletic association will shortly canvass the town with a subscription paper in order to hire the four or five players necessary to compete with neighboring towns.
